MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence

SUBJECT : Distribution of Finished Intelligence to the Bureau of the Budget

1. When Mr. Amory went to the Budget Bureau as Chief of the International Division in the spring of 1962, he asked to be put on distribution for the Central Intelligence Bulletin, the Current Intelligence Weekly Review (codeword), all National Intelligence Estimates, and all intelligence memoranda. This was done. These publications are still distributed to the Bureau.

2. The present distribution of finished intelligence to the Bureau of the Budget is as follows:

One copy of CIB is taken to the Budget Bureau by courier each day where it is read by the following:

Mr. Schultze	Director
Mr. Staats	Deputy Director
Mr. Rowan	Assistant Director
Mr. Clark	Chief, Intelligence Division
Mr. Frey

The courier waits while the CIB is read and returns it to Headquarters.

3. One copy of the CIWR is delivered to the Bureau for reading by cleared officers. Copies of all NIE's are sent to Mr. Clark, as are copies of most routinely distributed intelligence memoranda, together with selected memoranda given limited distribution. ORR occasionally sends memoranda to Budget Director Schultze when there is reason to believe that he would be interested. Four such memoranda have been sent to Schultze in the last six months.

Discontinue 1 Jan 66
